

SLAPTON LEY

FIELD CENTRE & NATIONAL NATURE RESERVE

ANNUAL RESEARCH SEMINAR
SATURDAY 29TH NOVEMBER 2014

Venue: Slapton Ley Field Centre
Chair: Prof Tim Burt, Field Studies Council

To register please call 01548-580685 or email reserve.sl@field-studies-council.org

09.30 Arrival and coffee

09.45 Welcome and introduction - Andy Pratt (Head of Centre)

Session 1

10.00 Long-term water quality in the Slapton catchments: a review of data quality and trends

Prof Tim Burt, Durham University

10.30 Distribution and population structure of the fish in Slapton Ley

Adam Fryer & Paul Gratton, Fishtek

11.00 Slapton Catchment Sensitive Farming

Lizbe Pilbeam

11.30 Coffee

Session 2

12.00 The costs and benefits of long term data for FSC

Sue Townsend & Robin Sutton, FSC

12.30 Evaluating fieldwork and outdoor learning: a values-led approach

Lewis Winks, Exeter University

13.00 Lunch

Session 3

14.00 Loe Bar - a mini version of Slapton Sands

Dr Adrian Spalding, Spalding Associates

14.30 Strapwort - back from the brink

Tracey Hamston, WWCT

15.00 Managing Slapton Ley NNR – The good, the bad and the ugly.

Graham Burton

15.30 Close

